CARTER HALL HURT IN PRACTICE GAME

Ankle Badly Sprained-Trouble Getting Good Men for Center.

Center.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA. October 19.—The strenuous practice, which Coach Sanford is putting the foot-ball applicants through, in order to get them in trim for the forthcoming contests with Virginia Military Institute, Carlisle Indians, Navy and North Carolina, has its disadvantages, and this afternoon another player was added to the crippled list.

In a lively scrimmage, Carter Hall, of Fredericksburg, had his ankle bady sprained, and will be out of the game for two weeks. He was fast developing into a good backfield man, and was slated for right-half in Saturday's game with the Lexington cadets. There is no dearth of backs, however, as Virginia has three sets of men behind the line the equal of last year's trio. The trouble is in the center of the line—the same trouble which existed in the Pennsylvania game. It seems hard to find three men in equal of last year's trio—Conner, Elmer and Spates—the players who gave the Indians all they wanted and through which he Red Skins could not find an opening.

In response to a demand from his admirers and fellow students, Spates appeared on the field this afternon in foot-ball togs and played on the scrub eleven.

It is safe to say that before another ten days has passed, he will be found at his odplace in the Varrity line-up, and will be among those taken to Norfolk to renew his acquaintance with the Indians and to assist in stopping Captain Sheldon in his plunges through the line.
